

I feel that Cross-Ownership, or allowing the same media conglomerates to own both newspaper and television outlets in the same market will be a negative to the public interest. Democracy best flourishes when there are a variety of fair and independent voices; allowing the same corporations more mouth pieces takes us further from this goal.

Do maintain the cross-ownership ban. Further consolidation in media is not what we need.